

It's slimey, it's wacky, it's downright geeky! Kids will love it!

National Chemistry Week comes to the Santa Ana Zoo at Prentice Park.

(1801 East Chestnut Avenue, Santa Ana. Use the 1st/4th St. exit from the 5 or the 55 Fwy.)

This year's theme:

Having a Ball with Chemistry

Sunday, October 12, 2008

Zoo hours: 10 AM - 4 PM

Science exhibits: 10 AM - 3 PM

Rudy's Radical Science Show: 12:30 PM

Chemistry students from 10 or more Orange County colleges will set up demonstrations and hands-on chemistry activities for the hundreds of children who visit the Santa Ana Zoo that day. Special invitations are going to the Hispanic neighborhoods through nearby schools, newspapers and radio, as well as to Boy Scout and Girl Scout troops. ACS members are encouraged to come and bring their friends and elementary-aged children to visit the zoo October 12 to see young chemists educating and entertaining the children, and to see the many improvements and new animals at the zoo too.
